

Date of Commencement: 27 July 2010

Duration: 9 weeks

Day: Tuesdays & Thursdays

Time: 7.00pm – 9.00pm

Venue: IACT College

Registration Fees: RM200 per participant

Course Fees: RM1,800 per participant

HRDF Training Grant: SBL

This course teaches the most effective manner of creating dynamic and creative websites using web application tools of Macromedia Fireworks, Flash and Dreamweaver.

Pre-requisite:

Participants intending to sign-up for this course must have sound knowledge and competency in Computer Graphics (Photoshop, Illustrator)

Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, participants will:

- have sound knowledge in producing websites using various production tools and techniques.

Contents:

- Technical overview and introduction to web publishing
- Understanding the Dreamweaver interface and components
- Creating web page and employing hyperlinks on web page
- FTP concepts and site management
- Understanding the Fireworks interface and components
- Hyperlinks and export strategies
- Understanding the Flash interface and components
- Simple animation: motion tweens & shape tweens
- Using audio in a Flash environment
- Combining Flash with Fireworks and Dreamweaver

Suitable for individuals interested in learning today's technology in producing websites