

The specialist college in creative communication

IACET Convocation 2010 - Bigger, Better and Bolder.

The IACT 2010 Convocation was gloriously held on 17 July 2010 at the Topaz Ballroom, One World Hotel celebrating 86 graduates from the Graduating Class of 2010. The convocation was attended by IACT's Board of Governors and Directors, VIPs from the 4As and MAA, lecturers, staff, proud parents and graduates.

The convocation witnessed the graduation of the Mass Communication, Advertising and Marketing Communications and Graphic Design graduates. During the convocation, IACT presented the Appreciation Awards to the Association of Accredited Advertising Agents Malaysia (4As) and the Malaysian Advertisers Association (MAA) for their continuous support towards IACT for all these years.

A video presentation of IACT's "40 Years of Journey" was screened to commemorate the establishment of IACT from the day it started its operation in Damansara Uptown to the now brand new campus at Jaya One.

Apart from that, the ceremony included the award presentation of Diploma parchments to the graduates, presentation of Academic Awards to the best students from each course and a Valedictorian Award to the overall best student.

This year's valedictorian was Kenneth Yee Weng Keen, a graduate from the Diploma in Advertising and Marketing Communications, who was chosen as the overall best student. The Valedictorian Award was sponsored by Pos Ad Sdn. Bhd. "It is not impossible to be the best among the best! Each and every one of us here today has proven that we can be the best. I am honoured to be the representative for all IACT's graduands today, to say that we have achieved the ultimate prize for all our hard work and sacrifices", said Kenneth in his speech.

IACET College: IACT's Graduating Class of 2010 with IACT lecturers, Board of Governors and Directors, Chairman and Principal of IACT College.

Founded, endorsed and taught by industry professionals